Chester and Rock Hill Games.

Five of the Rock Hill boys and Mr. E. F. McCall went to Chester Friday and gathered some recruits down there and played ball at that place. We do not know whether with a regular organized team, or whether with a lot of the Chester boys. We note that Roy Evans and Matthews, who are classed as professionals, played with Chester, the score each day being 5 to 1 in favor of Chester. The features of the games, so we are informed, were the fans chasing their umpires of the 1907 season. "Evans" pitched a single hit game. A crowd from there is scheduled to play here today, tomorrow and Wednesday—Rock Hill Record.
